I don't know where we went wrong, no it's become a blur

Can't say that I don't love you though it would make things easier

I don't know why but it seems I've failed another test

I can't even say for sure that I have done my best

I have done my best

I don't know where I'm going

I don't know why I left

I feel displaced and erased

I feel lonely and bereft

I don't know why I am going

I don't know anything

I don't know

No, I don't know

We put men up into space, satellites in the sky

But we still don't really know what happens when we die

Maybe I will find somebody light and feel less incomplete

Maybe I will bloom when I push up through this concrete

I don't know where I'm going

I don't know why I left

I feel displaced and erased

I feel lonely and bereft

I don't know why I'm going

I don't know anything

I don't know

No, no I don't know

All these things that I do

They are meaningless without you

Without you, without you, without you

I don't know where I'm going

I don't know why I left

I feel displaced and erased

I feel lonely and bereft

I don't know why I'm going

I don't know anything

I don't know, no, no I don't know
I don't know, no, no I don't know
I don't know, no, I don't know
