a midnight trip she gets her blood from Carver City shore

(please someone answer me)

wrapped in smoke with the key to lock, to lock the corridor

(i think someone's after me) denial on high, they waited up for her delivery

(trapped in captivity)

the mystery will soon destroy this chosen family

(please someone answer me)

it's been four months almost five

last seen on Coyote Drive from her a word wasn't heard... and she never returned

no thoughts of running away, her friends have nothing to say and she never returned this midnight trip she left her blood to all eternity

(please someone answer me)

a search was on but they gave it up to rot it misery

(trapped in captivity)

it's been four months or five

from her a word wasn't heard (please someone answer me)

this time she never returned

to say

and she never returned

no, she never returned
