a blackout they peel him off the floor
frenetic amnesiac
he's delirious, he thinks he's been here before
frenetic amnesiac
no recall, not one familiar face
frenetic amnesiac
the molded man has been completely erased
frenetic amnesiac

everybody's after me
you could be the enemy
you seem too happy to reveal yourself
there's no resentment here

completely in the dark, try to pave a way with no chance and no reason not knowing who you are...looking for the truth it ain't here and you can't believe them

what you see is what you get two seconds after i forget

no recall there's no familiar face
frenetic amnesiac
the molded man has been completely erased
frenetic amnesiac
frenetic amnesiac
