Hope, could it be so lost? Or is it under appreciated just like the rest? Death, couldn't be so bad Or is it under appreciated just like the rest? Just like the rest

How can you stand there and tell me That I don't remember this place? How can you speak when it's clear That your words have stripped your speech?

Pray, you practice everyday The meaning is to the appreciated just like the rest Faith, cannot speak for you Are you under appreciated just like the rest? Just like the rest

How can you stand there and tell me That I don't remember this place? How can you speak when it's clear That your words have stripped your speech?

Dawn, I wonder where you are And hope that you're appreciated unlike the rest
