Never thought I'd meet a girl
Who made the whole world spin around
Without this I would surely hit the ground
Hahaha! now what do you think when you think of me?
Such a deep little question
Well don't you see?

That brieanna girl you don't even know
The smile on your face
Girl just don't let it go
Brieanna brieanna
Girl you don't even know
The smile on your face tells me not to let go
Brieanna, brieanna, don't let it go

So here we go again
Same old situation
Well howd u meet? and what did u think?
And I hope she treats you right
Cause I'd be angry if you woke up with her
By your side
But girl if you love her
Then it'll be allright
I'll be just fine
If you promise your happy tonight

Brieanna girl you don't even know
The smile on your face
Girl just don't let it go
Brieanna brieanna
Girl you don't even know
The smile on your face tells me not to let go
Brieanna, brieanna, don't let it go

And I, swear that I wont
Let it all go
I swear that I wont
Let you know...
