with my perceptions in a mix, down 20 miles through the sticks to the cloudy town of hellview population 96. excessive vacancy, well maybe in the shadow of an eye all the strangers pass through where the rules just don't apply at the fork turn left a store, but on the right stay free from sight because 96 quite bitter beings like to stack the bodies high the only way to ever leave is over flooded by the storm and entanglement in hellview brings you fear in 50 forms they've deleted all the tourists at the bottom of the lake and not one supports the cause to leave the blood stay in the veins here, 3 miles back is where they are all we ever wanted was an answer civilized are close but way too far

footprints giving clue to where we are
all we ever wanted.....

Interesting Fact: This song was inspired by horror movies
