Since when do you come around?
And the temperature's changed, nothing's the same
Left me in yesterday
You don't see me that way, touch me that way no
more
When you get so cold
I'm not sure just how much longer I can hold

You got me standin' at the bottom of this mountain
that we've made
(Mountain that we've made)
And the ground is shakin' from all of our mistakes
(All of our mistakes)
But there's no one, but then
The ice is in our way
It's a matter of time
We can rewind

If only you knew
What my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past
Is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand? (Where do we stand?)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, oh, this avalanche, avalanche,
avalanche)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, yeah, this avalanche,
avalanche, avalanche, oh)

We see what's up ahead
Why do we stay, watching us fadin'
Trapped in by regret
There's no way out, and there's no way in, no
And it's so cold
I'm not sure just how much longer I can hold

You got me standin' at the bottom of this mountain
that we've made
(Mountain that we've made)

And the ground is shakin' , from all of our mistakes
(All of our mistakes)
But there's no one, but then the ice is in our way
It's a matter of time
We can rewind

If only you knew
What my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past
Is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand? (Where do we stand?)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, oh, this avalanche, avalanche,
avalanche)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, yeah, this avalanche,
avalanche, avalanche, oh)

The bond is breaking
And it's taking over my spirit
(Quickly, quickly)
Something's shifted
Have we drifted too far, apart now?

If only you knew
What my heart must do for you
I'm tryna break through
Don't you think it's worth the chance?
Let's leave the past
Is that too much to ask?
And where do we stand? (Where do we stand?)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, oh, this avalanche, avalanche,
avalanche)
Can we pull through this avalanche?
(Avalanche, avalanche, yeah, this avalanche,
avalanche, avalanche, oh)
