I don't love how you love
But please don't leave me here alone
I don't feel how you feel
Well, it's my fault I'm bones

I don't die how you die
I can't just waste away
You keep changing
Your life everyday

If it burns I'll keep fueling the same dream
And if you fall, I'll remember to save game
I don't want your remedy

I don't fall how you fall
I won't hold on, you can't let go
When it's pain that I feared
I made you take it slow

I don't cry how you cry
There's nothing left in me
You keep changing
My life everyday

If it burns I'll keep fueling the same dream
And if you fall, I'll remember to save game
I don't want your remedy

If it burns I'll keep fueling the same dream
And if you fall, I'll remember to save game
I don't want your remedy

I don't want, I don't need
I don't want, I don't need

I don't want, I don't need

If it burns I'll keep fueling the same dream
And if you fall, I'll remember to save game
I don't want your remedy

If it burns I'll keep fueling the same dream

And if you fall, I'll remember to save game
I don't want your remedy
