Everyone around you suffocates
And I can see your madness rip your brain
Well I can see the bodies on the wall
And all the nightmare dreams I can't recall come

Well I can see the future boiling up around, I'm so afraid
Someone told you make her half a girl, she used to be alive
Well I can feel the fire, crawling on you like you're Superman
But I would pay to watch you burn

All the love you have disintegrates
And all that saved you but your apathy
Well I can see the knives hung on the wall
And all the blood stains I can't recall, come

Well I can see the future boiling up around, I'm so
Someone told you make her half a girl, she used to be alive
Well I can feel the fire, crawling on you like you're
Superman
But I would pay to watch you burn

Take back this pain you gave
Take back this pain you gave
Take back this pain you gave
Take back this pain you gave

Take back this pain you gave
Take back this pain you gave
Take back this pain you gave

All the love you have disintegrates
And all that saved you was your apathy
Well I remember all the knives you hung
And all the bodies stretched across the wall

All the drama that they made me think
It couldn't be real, must be fake

Well I can see the bodies on the wall
And all the nightmare dreams I can't recall, come

Well I can see the future boiling up around, I'm so
Someone told you make her half a girl, she used to be alive
I can feel the fire, crawling on you like you're Superman
But I would pay to watch you burn

I wanna watch you burn
I wanna watch you burn
I wanna watch you burn
