You stole my home from me,
And it feels wrong,
And I can't breathe.
The poison runs through my veins,
And it stings me.
It takes me far away,
Far away.

I can taste it,
It's closer now,
Closer now.

Well I won't take it anymore,
I can't feel.
What is something that I said that's not real?
Did you cut away the strings that held me?
Well I can't hold on anymore.

You seem so far away,
Far Away.

I can taste it,
It's closer now,
Closer now.

Can anybody save me?
My life's gone and it's all my fault.
Maybe I'm afraid you'll be inside of me,
And it's not my fault.

I'm sober and I can't see straight,
I'm broken, how could this be?
Medication for all my insecurities.

You seem so far away,
Far away.

I can taste it,
It's closer now,
Closer now.

Can anybody save me?

My life's gone and it's all my fault.
Maybe I'm afraid you'll be inside of me,
And it's not my fault.

I see the madness that you made along the way,
Close my eyes.
I see the terror that you built along the way,
Close my eyes.
I see the stars, they come crashing down on top of me,
Close my eyes.
I feel the rain, it comes pouring down over me,
Close my eyes.

I won't take this anymore.
I won't hold on anymore.
I won't take it anymore,
No more.

Can anybody save me?
My life's gone and it's all my fault.
Maybe I'm afraid you'll be inside of me,
and it's not my fault.

Can anybody save me?
My life's gone and it's all my fault.
Maybe I'm afraid you'll be inside of me,
and it's not my,
Not my fault.
