It's when my world comes down
You wanna change your little waves
Tomorrow's another start
But it looks like everyday
You can't imagine how
I wish that you could be the one
Inside you are not the same
But you look like everyone

It's like a tidal wave
That wants to take the stars
A hurricane
That wrapped around my heart
If I could find a way
I'd make a brand new start
I can't believe
It was the calm that killed the storm

Inside you broke my heart
And took a little piece of me
Maybe one day we'll try again
But it won't ever be the same
If I don't hold on now
Everything fades and slips away
Tomorrows another start
But it looks like everyday

It's like a tidal wave
That wants to take the stars
A hurricane
That wrapped around my heart
If I could find a way
I'd make a brand new start
I can't believe
It was the calm that killed the storm

It's like a tidal wave
That wants to take the stars
A hurricane
That wrapped around my heart
If I could find a way
I'd make a brand new start

I can't believe
It was the calm that killed the storm

The storm

Kill the storm
Kill the storm
Kill the storm
Kill the storm
