Well I can take another bet
She loves to fuck, well I must confess
Well everything is so abused
The little things, she puts me through

Well I can't stand to be insane
You let her fuck, you're so arranged
Well all the pain is nearly dead
That's in my thoughts and in your bed

Well I can't change
Well guess who, come to kill the love here
Every time you fuck
Well guess who, come to kill the love here

Don't want to scream, I'll take your bet
She loves to fuck, well I must confess
Well everything is so abused
The little things, she puts me through

Well I can't stand to be insane
You let her fuck, you're so arranged
Well all the pain is nearly dead
That's in my thoughts and in your bed

Well I can't change
Well guess who, tried to kill the love here
Every time you fuck
Well guess who, tried to kill the love here

Everytime pain is nearly dead
Tried to kill the love here
Every time I said you really
Still tried to kill the love here

Can't kill monsters
Well guess who came
Well guess who came
Well guess who came

Well I can't change
Well guess who, tried to kill the love here

Well every time you fuck
Well guess who, tried to kill the love here

Everytime you feel it
Guess who, tried to kill the love here
Every time I found it
Guess who, tried to kill the love here

Tried to kill the love here
Tried to kill the love here
Tried to kill love, love here
