"Table In The Sun"

A table in the sun is all I want
Just want to slow down and rest my heart
So many tears and so much fear
So much happened in the last two years

No rain, no sorrow, the bad days are over
The sun is shining through
Even November days, too
So much we've learned, a whole new world
Thank God I'm saved
I'm still cruising The Seventh Wave

It's hard to understand, what we've been through
I guess we need time - me and you
Oh so many times, I wondered why
It happened to me - this time

A table in the sun and me and you
