Sweet words accompanying me
Walking down this road on a Sunday
And the rain is calling out:
"Don't look back! Continue!"

Sweet words accompanying me
On this road from dust to swan lake
I can hear your voice, it's calling out:
"Don't look back! Continue!"

Those days are gone when this broken heart
Was begging won't you please...
Those days are gone when this broken heart
Was begging won't you please set me free!

Don't you look back for lost love!
Those days are gone!
Those days are gone!
Don't you look back for lost love!
Those days are gone!
Those days are gone!
