Time has come to reveal saints and loonies
To bring sharpness to my forgotten common sense
Although I knew your play my mind betrayed me
So, I decided to put an end to the game

'Cause I can promise you that even
If I would beg you to stay
Must go, go, go!
Go away!

Time has come to deal with bad excuses
Oh, excuse me but you forgot to pay, pay for the rent
That puppyish smile of yours will not deceive me
'Cause, I've decided to put an end to the game

'Cause I can promise you that even
If I would beg you to stay
Must go, you must go!
Go away!
