She was tempted by whispers and drawn from the past
She entered the world with an ace in her cards
With plain words of wisdom and stories of love
She opened a treasure, she aimed at your heart

Dare to be a lucky star
You must be a lucky star
Dare to see that the star
You must see
It is your heart
It is your heart

Confusion rules space in this world, be awake
A beautiful star can get caught in the trade
So, mind all the steps, mind the gap, mind the fame
The star is your heart, so run for it's sake

Dare to be a lucky star
You must be a lucky star
Dare to see that the star
You must see
It is your heart
It is your heart

True is her garden, a temple on earth
She waters a dried land, she quenches your thirst
Release all your fear, she says, remember to your path
Aim for the treasure, prepare for restart

Dare to be a lucky star
You must be a lucky star
Dare to see that the star
You must see
It is your heart
It is your heart
