I was walking in circles
Asking the wind
Can you lead me
Away from this pain
This coastline at dawn
Over the seas
Till I find peace?

But I was hit by a star
I saw an angel
He was crossing my path
He had those seldom seen eyes reflecting my past
My tears, my laugh, my hunger

Hit by a star
I found an angel
Deep rooted but far away
A longing soul afraid of losing his heart
A silent spoken story
Based on a life of pain and glory

Am I still walking in circles
Asking the wind
Will you still lead me
Away from this pain
This coastline at dusk
Over the seas
Till I find peace?

Are we still walking in circles?
