Little and afraid, darkness prevails
When going deeper and deeper the dark entails
So tear it open, let the light come in
Let it destroy the shadows of your sins

So let's live now, seize the day as they say
All your problems will come to you anyway
So don't make it easier for them to find you
By being blue

Insidious and false, that's what you are
Now when you've reached the bottom, you've gone too far
So turn direction, keep your head up high
You needn't be afraid and let me tell you why

Let's live now, seize the day as they say
All your problems will come to you anyway
So don't make it easier for them to find you
By being blue

A human curse, that's what this is
When thinking too much, a lot we miss
Your heart beats faster and your poor head aches
Think of all the time worrying takes

So let's live now, seize the day as they say
All your problems will come to you anyway
So don't make it easier for them to find you
By being blue
