Move a little closer, babe
And rest your heart right here
Leave your cares behind
Watch them disappear

We'll make the sounds of sweet surrender
Oh, it's a night we will remember

We're gonna need a love song
One we can call our own
Words that say it all so right

We're gonna need a melody
One that will sing so sweetly
We're gonna need a love song, tonight

Just a soulful voice and a soft guitar
'Bout a lover's moon
And a wishing star

And in the part that's got the heartbeat
It's got to say just what you mean to me

We're gonna need a love song
One we can call our own
Words that say it all so right

We're gonna need a melody
One that will sing so sweetly
We're gonna need a love song, tonight

When we dance we love those happy songs
And when we're sad we sing the blues
Now that we know right where our hearts belong
We got to have it simple and true

We're gonna need a love song
One we can call our own
Words that say it all so right

We're gonna need a melody
One that will sing so sweetly

We're gonna need a love song, tonight
We're gonna need a love song, tonight

Rest your heart right here
