I have new things that are told to me
Not ones I hear oftenly
I try to assist as much as I can
But it blows up in my face
Now what's the plan

I'm all confused
No way to get out
I guess things went to far
Is it my turn to pout

I'm losing it
Why does this happen to me
You just can't win fairly
Being stuck in the middle
Isn't ever fun
So you've got to say
Hey, hold up

Friendships can get hard at times
But if you're really mine
You'll understand why
This is all unfair to me

I'm losing it
Why does this happen to me
You just can't win fairly
Being stuck in the middle
Isn't ever fun
So you've got to say
Hey, hold up
