Rising high to the sky where the eagles fly

Calling out to me here and now
Like a diamond in the night
never blind to the sight

As the conquest comes around.
It's there for the taking the choice in the making

We live as we do or die.
When you rise to the challenge it's all in the balance

It's something you can't deny.

Like a lover she's calling for you

Like no other she never says no.
To another there is no escape

'Cause when she's calling you back again and again
You know who's gonna win.

Fire and ice - shining in the sun

Fire and ice - now it's one on one

Fire and ice - she always calls her lovers back Until she finds the one one on one.
Fire and ice - fire and ice.

There's a moment of light where the motion of life
Is suspended out of time.
Like a shadow in the night
a vision out of sight

The reason is the rime.
It's there for the taking no making no breaking

It's there coming into you.
When you rise to the challenge it's all in the balance

You do what you got to do.

Like a lover she's calling for you

Fire and ice - shining in the sun

...

Fire and ice - fire and ice - fire and ice - fire and ice.

Fire and ice - shining in the sun

Fire and ice - shining in the sun
