Hold me tight don't let go Forever be yours in this bright new dawn
Open up your eyes for a big new suprise
Listen to me now in the bright new dawn Fixing what's wrong seeing the people who don't belong we will try to hide are dispise but it always comes out on the inside.
Corus: Nobody said it was easy together we can help change the world. come with me now on this island of love running away from all sivilization Open your eyes to a bright new dawn

Over all we have done good.
My heart is beating ever so quickly don't shade your eyes from the bright new dawn
