Doctorin' the house
doctorin'
doctorin'.
We've got a hot one for you
can you take care of it?
We've got a hot one for you
can you take care of it?

Yeah
you just hit me!
Listen
listen
listen for the beatbox - beat dis!
Now who's jackin' the house? That wicked plastic man.

Doctorin' the house
doctorin'

We're doctorin' the house
doctorin'
doctorin'!

So clap your hands to what he's doin'! Woh
yeah
woh
yeah!
Who stole the cookie from the cookie jar?
Hey
baby
you want to dance with me?
That's right
it's an attack!
Oh
boy
what a great record! I say
I say.
The sound of now! That wicked plastic man.

Doctorin' the house
doctorin'

...

Now who's jackin' the house? That wicked plastic man.

How do they do that? It's really quite simple.

You just mingle! That wicked plastic man.

Doctorin' the house

doctorin'

Ah

sure is cruel of you cats to leave me all alone

By myself to watch this little old kid playing actually.

Say kids

what time is it?

It's time for house. I am the magnificent!

Give it to me

give it to me

give it to me

give it to me.

The music maker.

Doctorin' the house

doctorin'

...

Oh

my godness!

Ha

you'll see the plastic men are coming!

They're coming! Ha

ha
