Bound up in this energy ball again
Laughin' and bouncin' off the magic Rollin' under like a surfboard in a wave
Washin' me up I wanna do it again

Entwined in her arms Spinnin' around and submarine beneath the deep of her
Climbin' the forks of the lightnin'
Buildin' a rod for my back
It's all right, it's all right

Dreamin' a dream that only the sleepless know
Chillin' the afternoon in Viva Vida
Watchin' the sun slide down the avenue
So real, I feel

Dizzy to fever with this love
The blues and the grays are waved away inside a day with her
Ridin' the forks of the lightnin'
Feelin' the sparks along my back
It's all right, it's all right

I thought I was born to take and to damage
But I'm givin' and healin' and feelin' ultramarine and ultraserene
Slidin' the forks of the lightnin', yeah
She told me today it'll be okay
It's all right, it's all right

Ah ah ha ya
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
