Currently Unreleased ---

If the time will come when I'm alone
Got no place to go
If you see me one night on my own
Rain pouring on

And my mind keeps on flying
Trying to be free
And my spirit comes to meet me
I'm as high as I can be
And there's someone in the valley
She's calling out to me
She's standing by the river
My Lady Fantasy

Sunrise in the morning
Lies upon the hill
Daybreaks without warning
???? coming still

Sun fills up the valley
Carpet all of green
Falls upon the lady
Finest ever seen

She stands by the river
There for all to see
Love goes on forever
Oh my Lady Fantasy
