Breaking The Same Old Ground And then I found how to be what you want when I was out looking for something new Digging too deep and now it's too late
we just keep on
breaking the same old ground So you think that I asked for this well, let me show you
what I think of your lips
And you think that I asked for this come on,
use your fist And then I found how to be what you want
well, let me show you
come on,
use your fist When I found how to be what you want I was out looking for something new digging too deep now it's too late
breaking the same old ground breaking the same old ground shhhhhhâ€¦ shhhhhhâ€¦ I am owned by death and I'm in love with oblivion I am owned by death
and
I'm in love with oblivion
