In the wasteland
On the way to the Red Queen
It's no wonder our stage clothes
Have dreams to be famous

Trees in the courtyard
Are painted in blood, so I've heard
She hangs the headless
Upside down to drain

Eat me, drink me
This is only a game
This is only a game

I was invited to
A beheading today
I thought I was a butterfly
Next to your flame

A rush of panic and
The lock has been raped
This is only a game
This is only a game

But then our star rushes in
Feeling like a child
Looking like a woman

She's been forecast with
An attempt to kill herself
But the ending didn't test well

Eat me, drink me
This is only a game

I was invited to
A beheading today
I thought I was a butterfly
Next to your flame

A rush of panic and

This is only a game
This is only a game

But then our star rushes in
Feeling like a child
Looking like a woman

She's been forecast with
An attempt to kill herself
But the ending didn't test well

Eat me, drink me
This is only a game
This is only a game

Eat me, drink me
This is only a game
This is only a game

So now picking my skin and my scales
I see my horror mirrored
In your sundown of a blank stare

Eat me, drink me
This is only a game

But then our star rushes in
Feeling like a child

She's been forecast with

She's been forecast with
An attempt to kill herself

She's been forecast with
