In the darkness, infatuation
Doesn't have a name
Up in smoke goes inhibition
Moths around a flame
And we call it love

Perfect strangers said forever
I'm never lettin' go
Thought you knew me, thought I knew you
What did we know
The fires that get too hot
They burn you

Too much too soon
Too much too soon
Two hearts gotta cool down
Oh too close to breathe
I never said my heart
Would give you every beat
Slow down
Slow down

Have no illusions, you attract me
Like nobody else
You can have me if you leave me
Something for myself
The fires that get too hot
They burn you

Too much too soon
Too much too soon
Two hearts gotta cool down
Oh too close to breathe
I never said my heart
Would give you every beat
Slow down

Call it a fear
Call it, call it what you want
Sorry but I get frightened
if someone calls it
Someone calls it love

Too much too soon
Two hearts gotta cool down
Oh too close to breathe
I never said my heart
Would give you every beat
Slow down

Too much too soon
Two hearts, oh
Too close to breathe
Gotta cool down
