New love, new love

Gotta new love, gotta new love tonight
Gotta new love, gotta new love tonight
New love, new love

You came into my life, took one look in your eyes
And I knew there'd be no more cryin'. ,
I can hear myself fall, whenever you call my name
You make me feel like dyin' now

I never knew how much I longed for Someone quite like you
You're what I've been waitin for all my life; it's true
So hear me say

I felt weak in the knees, when you said "won't you please"
Take my hand cause I feel like dancin'
I could feel my heart pound, overcome by the sound
Of the music in your romancin' arms

Your's are the one's I long to care for
They make me feel just right
You've given me so much more
Here in just one night; so I'm burstin' to say
