1. two thousand one, was my release.
fresh out of the pen,
now iÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ m back on the street,
got a new mindset,
and a brand new plan, gettinÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ back on my feet,
keep away from the man;

2. on parole no time for play, givinÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ up the fast life, gonna start a new day,
they gave me a number,
took away my name,
gotta do things right,
and gotta play the game;

bridge
then a change came charging in, (charging in) cause itÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ s a cruel cruel world, (cruel world) some times itÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ s even hard, to trust your own little girl,
(i canÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ t catch a break no)
but you gotta stay strong my brother,
'tilÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ the very end (very end) cause your truth, and your honor, you got to defend, i canÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ t get a break, (i canÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ t catch a break, canÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ t get

3. two thousand and four,
i got set up at my front door, ooh ainÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ t it a shame, the way the man plays the game, i got a brand new number,
with a brand new deal,
hard to believe,
but the story is so real;

4. now iÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ m in a program, gotta see the man once a month, dressed up in a monkey suit, lookinÃfÂçâ, ÑÂ™ like a dummy, in a store front,

5. two thousand and five,
to two double o six,
had to pick up my life,
and get back in the mix;

go to bridge solo
cause it's a cruel cruel world, (cruel world) some times it's even hard, to trust your own
little girl,
(i can't catch a break no)
but you gotta stay strong my brother,
'til the very end (very end) cause in order to survive, you can't never give in,
bridge
