Can I just take a moment to be real and say
I take the blame for all wrong decisions made
We were ok, we had it all, im the one who changed
So not gonna put the guilt on you
A million sorries over due to you girl

So listen to your heart and what its telling you
I know might be hard but well make it through
I know your thinking we tired and didnt make it
But girl im telling you i wanna be true

Come back to me
Im tryin to be all that you need
But you telling me what we had is over
But there aint no closure
I feel like you know but
I still aint got over you
(2x)

I know it hurts for me to picture someone else in my place
So what made me think that you wouldnt feel that
We play some games
Going back and forth to see who cause more pain
But i dont wanna play no more
Tryin to give in put down you sword

So listen to what your heart is telling you

I know it might be hard but we can make it through
I know your thinking we tired and didnt make it
But girl im telling you i wanna be true

Come back to me
Im tryin to be all that you need
But you telling me what we had is over
But there aint no closure
I feel like you know but
I still aint got over you
(2x)

Dont be afraid to say you care

I know deep inside you feel me there
Tryin to convince yourself to let me go

Come back to me
Im tryin to be all that you need
But you telling me what we had is over
But there aint no closure
I feel like you know but
I still aint got over you
(2x)
