You tolerate the calls at 3 o'clock in the morning
It's tearing you apart trying to ignore it
I know you want to say it's love, but girl it's so obvious
I ain't trying to be in your business
From the looks of things, he don't care
So tell me why he ain't coming back yet
If he loves you girl, he'll be there

Wake up, baby wake up
Tell that zero that you went to get his weight up
He can' do nothing cuz he got no paper
It's a crazy kind of love
I think you better wake up, baby wake up
Don't you see that you're doing him a favor
And to top it off girl, he's a player
It's crazy. It's a crazy kind of love

He shoud understand everything you need
He should lay down the world right at your feet
But I want to say that you should be with me
Cuz I can make you happy
I ain't trying to be in your business
From the looks of things, he don't care
So tell me why he ain't coming back yet
If you were mine, girl I'd be there

Wake up, baby wake up
Tell that zero that you went to get his weight up
He can' do nothing cuz he got no paper
It's a crazy kind of love
I think you better wake up, baby wake up
Don't you see that you're doing him a favor
And to top it off girl, he's a player
It's crazy. It's a crazy kind of love

Wake up, baby wake up
Tell that zero that you went to get his weight up
He can' do nothing cuz he got no paper
It's a crazy kind of love
I think you better wake up, baby wake up
Don't you see that you're doing him a favor
And to top it off girl, he's a player

It's crazy. It's a crazy kind of love

Wake up, baby wake up
Tell that zero that you went to get his weight up
He can' do nothing cuz he got no paper
It's a crazy kind of love
I think you better wake up, baby wake up
Don't you see that you're doing him a favor
And to top it off girl, he's a player
It's crazy. It's a crazy kind of love

Baby won't you wake up
You're doing him a favor
