I must have been crazy
Thinking you would play a part around my lady
All this time you were gathering information to take me away
From what my girl and I become Cause you wanna be the only
But you can't be the only one
Finally I found someone that I don't wanna give up
How so amazing when you find that true love
And I know I'm not the only who feels like when something good
Comes long somebody's there to mess it up

I'm not going no where
No baby no way
I'm gonna let you come between me and my girl
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I'm falling deep into this thing that we call love
You need to face it aint' no replacement
How could you think that I would choose you over her
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I can't let you come between me and my girl
Me and my girl

Girl you ain't right you know exactly what cha' doing Straight up had me going cause you said that you could take it
Now you acting like you don't the time
Feeling some type of way when you see me kiss her in the face (so soft)
My baby woulda never seen none of this coming Too busy making sure her man is where her love is Now I know not to bring your ass around (I can't do it)

Girl yous' a fool, I can't you no where

I'm not going no where
No baby no way
I'm gonna let you come between me and my girl
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I'm falling deep into this thing that we call love
You need to face it aint' no replacement

How could you think that I would choose you over her
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I can't let you come between me and my girl
Me and my girl

I need for you to just keep it keep it moving
Why you trying to complicate the situation

Can't take you no where
No baby no way
I'm gonna let you come between me and my girl
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I'm falling deep into this thing that we call love
You need to face it aint' no replacement
How could you think that I would choose you over her
I'm getting my life back to the way it should be
I can't let you come between me and my girl
Me and my girl
