[Intro]

One side of the story.
Your side of the story. (2x)

[Verse 1]

Tell your mother, "It's all right."
Tell your sisters and brothers, "It's okay."
And your friends, around the way, tell 'em, "Calm down."
Cause, they don't even know we gon' work this out.

[Hook 1]

Cause, that's how it starts (right there).
Tellin' everybody (out here),
What's goin' on between us.
We can't let, let 'em all in here.
Everybody aint' for us.
Especially, B, when they only hear...

[Chorus]

One side of the story,
And that's your side of the story,
Then they make up their own story.
I wonder what would happen if they...
Only heard my story,
That I love you only.
Baby, can't you see?
They don't know about you and me...

[My Story Lyrics On ]

[Verse 2]

I got an idea.
We should get away.
Somewhere with a view of the ocean,
For a couple days.
All night, Girl, we can make, "break-up to make-up love".
And clear our minds, nobody there but us...

[Hook 2]

And if the phone rings, let it ring.
If there's a knock at the door, let 'em knock.
If it's the end of the world, let it end.
Atleast I'll be with my girl.
Everybody ain't for us.
Especially, when they only see...

[Chorus]
One side of the story,
And that's your side of the story,
Then they make up their own story.
I wonder what would happen if they...
Only heard my story,
That I love you only.
Baby, can't you see?
They don't know about you and me...

[Bridge]
When they see you cry,
They don't know I'm hurt.
When they feel your pain,
They don't know it works out.
But, I'll hold it in until I see you again.
Cause, I don't wanna vent out to nobody, but you.

[Hook 3]
One side of the story.
Your side of the story.
One side of the story...
When they only hear...

[Chorus]
One side of the story,
And that's your side of the story,
Then they make up their own story.
I wonder what would happen if they...
Only heard my story,
That I love you only.
Baby, can't you see?
They don't know about you and me...

[Outro]
They don't know what we know...
One side of the story.
And that's your side of the story.
Baby, they don't know what we know...
One side of the story.
And that's my side of the story...
