Oh .. oh..

It's been a while since we have talk but there's so much left to say I never thought I'll would be making this call But do we really wanna end up this way I've rather see you face to face so don't you move girl I'm on our way one more night won't hurt us babe so please let me explain

I know that looks can be deceiving and every murther's had his reason I've had my share of mistakes Girl I know you've done the same cause we were both so comprehending what we had it had no ending can't be the way we are this time we gone to far we both have broke the rules more then we had

I just can't get over you so could you tell me
'cause I don't know what to do what we got is all on you is it him or me
you got to choose

every time we say this gonna be our last, last we keep going to with keep on coming back, back and now it's all come out and now I'm guessing that he knows it's bout to be something then here we go

I know my world was so much better when you and I was here together but you don't realize how much I can't take it had enough we can't go on pretending that what we have it has no ending but this is just the way we are this time we've gone to far

we both know that we are through you know I've tried
I just can't get over you so could you tell me now (tell me)
'cause i don't know what to do

ohh hmmm
