Hey baby,
I know I shouldn't be doing this
But, listen

Slip me your number
Cause I, I wanna talk to you

Girl I'm watching you walk by Desperately tryna catch your eye
I know you're with somebody else
But I can't help myself
Trying to get up close to you
And find a way to make my move
But I could use a little help

I know it's wrong for me to try
To steal you from somebody else
But there's a chance this chance might not come again
And I would not forgive myself
If I just let you get away
So, when no one's looking

Slip me your number
Cause I, I wanna talk to you (aw, baby, baby, yeah)
Keep it undercover
Cause I, I wanna get with you

Maybe he is just a friend
Maybe it's nothing serious
Maybe you secretly just wanting to get next to me
That's what I wanna think is true
Cause I just gotta get with you
And show you I'm the one you need (oh, oh, yeah)

I know I got no right to try to take you from somebody else

But I have never wanted something so bad
And maybe I can give you something you ain't never had before
So, baby, give me one chance

Slip me your number
Cause I, I wanna talk to you
Baby, baby, now
Keep it undercover
Cause I, baby, I wanna get with you, girl (yeah)

I wanna get your attention
I wanna make a connection, baby
I wanna show you how good we could be Won't you give me a sign
That you want me, baby, please

Slip me your number
Cause I, I wanna talk to you (ooh)
Keep it undercover
Cause I, I wanna talk to you (you, you, baby)

Slip me your number
Cause I
Keep it undercover
Cause I, I wanna talk to you, baby
I wanna talk to you, girl, baby

Slip me your number
Cause I (I, I wanna talk to you, baby)
Keep it undercover
Cause I (I wanna talk to you)
