I know you've been hurt before
And girl today my wish is that you hurt no more
I know the past few years have not been what you deserve
But baby let me make it better
Let me be your today, if tomorrow never comes Girl let me be the one, you love today
How can I make you believe, your love is safe with me?
I promise babe
I just wanna be the one you give your love to everyday
So baby can you promise me, promise me, promise me
You'll let me be your today

I wanna make you forget about everything
Oh my, let me be the one you call, you call your man
Whoa, girl I wanna take this so far past being friends
