Yeaa
Ohhh
Yeah

We go to sleep without saying a word
The sex we had was the best of the worst
Say my name put me out of my sleep
Ohh now I know you're dreaming about me
Girl what kind of games are we playing
Doing all of this and not even dating
Broke up with you and you agreed
So why does either of us wanna leave?

I know it, you know, we know it's over baby
Still in this house together but we're seperated
Sleeping together, having dinner and breakfast
Together but we're seperated

When your phone rings I can't ask who it is No cause it really ain't none of my business.. No no
This feeling is so uncomfortable
Why can't we just let it go, let it go baby Girl what kind of games are we playing
Doing all of this and not even dating
Broke up with you and you agreed
So why does neither of us wanna leave babe

I know it, you know, we know it's over baby
Still in this house together but we're seperated
Sleeping together, having dinner and breakfast
Together but we're seperated
I know it, you know, we know it's over baby
Still in this house together but we're seperated
Sleeping together, still having breakfast
Together but we're seperated

A flip of a card, picking heads or tails, multiple choice, circle no or yes, pulling off rose petals, love me, love me not
If there's any thing left, we gotta hold onto what we got

(Repeat)

I know it, you know, we know it's over baby
Still in this house together but we're seperated
Sleeping together, dinner and breakfast
Together but we're seperated
