Whoaa

Tell me who do you love

Whoaa

Who do you love

See I ain't never ever play sucker to no one

Now you're trying to tell me I need to get with it

But I'm the kind of nigger that don't fight for no one

So make your mind up girl or it's finished

You're telling me you need some time

A little time to make up your mind

Just tell me where you're gonna find

A lover just like me

You should never be confused

Can't nobody do what I do

When it comes to me and you

So tell me,

Who do you love

Is it me or that other man

You need to understand

He won't do you the way I can

Who do you call

When you need that good loving babe

When we're together girl

I don't hear you screaming his name

Who do you love

Is it me babe

Is it him that you call

When you need babe

Need a fix girl (who do you love)

Is it me babe

Is it him that you call

When you need babe

Need a fix girl

Who do you love girl

Now why are we even having this conversation girl

When you figure it out girl you know where to reach me

How dare you put a pair in the situation girl

Like I'm supposed to just sit here and be waiting

You're telling me you need some time
A little time to make up your mind
Just tell me where you're gonna find
A lover just like me
You should never be confused
Can't nobody do what I do
When it comes to me and you

So tell me,
Who do you love
Is it me or that other man
You need to understand

Who do you love (girl? now?)
So why you acting brand new
You must have forgotten girl
All the things that I've done for you
Like hanging my jersey up
I guess it wasn't good enough
Ohh girl just tell me

Who do you love
Is it me or that other man
You need to understand
He won't do you the way I can
Who do you call

So tell me who do you loveeee
Is it me or that other man
You need to understand
He won't do you the way I can
Who do you call
When you need that good loving babe

Who do you love
Is it me babe
Is it him that you call
When you need babe

Is it me babe
Is it him that you call
When you need babe

Who do you love girl
Who do you love, who do you love, who do you love girl
