Easy going, easy does it take some time
To think before you do
Every action has it's own consequences
That's the golden rule
Thought I knew it
All I thought that it could handle
But I thought all wrong
'Cause this isn't just about me or about you
It's about us all

And every time we need it
Whatever it may be
We'll make our souls a prison
For the happiness we seek

Give a little, take a little
Go, go slow
Life is everything
Give a little, take a little
Go, go slow
Life is everything

La la la, la la la la la
La la la, la la la la la

And every time we need it
Whatever it may be
We'll make our souls a prison
For the happiness we seek

Maybe you all love the money or the glory
Do you just want your way
We all have our reasons and our realizations
The coming of our age
Slowly we become what we were born to be and feel
If we hear our hearts
It's a gamble, take a stand in your release boy
Got to make a start

And every time we feel it
Whatever it may be

We'll make our souls a prison
For the happiness we seek

Give a little, take a little
Go, go slow
Life is everything
Give a little, take a little
Go, go slow
Life is everything

And every time we need it
Whatever it may be
We'll make our souls a prison

Life is everything
