It's All the Same
Adrienne Young / Will Kimbrough

One foot in front of the other
Is hard as hell these days
It's my choice, a case of any color
What makes me walk away?

One thought after another
Round and round they go
I've got to sit still, try to recover
Breathe into what I know

I know there's one god above us
And that god made everything
And it don't matter how you worship
How you see the clothes he wore
It's all the same
It's all the same

One truth over another
My pride your misery
Wrought this land from the hand of a brother
In the name of Liberty

Granddaddy fought, fought in the big war
While they went without at home
We sacrifice driving in our big cars
Chariots of modern Rome
I know there's one god above us
And that god made everything
And it don't matter how you worship
How you see the clothes he wore
It's all the same
It's all the same

One war after another
Blind to history
Those to come, will they forgive us?
For this waste of life and energy

One day after another

Waiting for the Son
We stake it all on the coming of a savior
Who'll right all the wrong we've done

I know there's one god above us
And that god made everything
And it don't matter how you worship
How you see the clothes he wore
It's all the same
It's all the same
