Back door, exit doors
Now I wanna be your dog, tape winding up
Hot tide, rattling off
Say goodbye to the friends you brought run with us

Oh, where I walk now, where I walk now
When I talk now, when I talk now
Oh, where I walk now, where I walk now
When I talk, when I talk

Flashlights go out, stars will light the way
Like Mexican dogs nobody gave us names

Tight burn in the dark
Mary's beads and the burning heart falling apart
High tide, kicking sand
Hot tide, we're all raised to win to taste the salt

Coca-Cola cost a quarter on my block, on my block
Coca-Cola cost a quarter on my block, on my block

Flashlights go out, the stars will light the way
Like Mexican dogs nobody gave us names
Flash lights go out, the stars will light the way
Like Mexican dogs nobody gave us names

We will chase the bright lights till we're done
We will chase the bright lights
We will chase the bright lights till we're done
We will chase the bright lights

When I taste the salt, when I taste the salt
And I taste the salt and I taste the salt
Mexican dogs
