"One Flower In Your Garden"

One flow'r grows alone in your garden,
Its fragrant sweetness will soon pass away.
One flow'r grows alone in your garden;
Soft petals blooming must wither some day.

Love's bowers should be overflowing
With sweet passionflowers of varied perfume;
So gather your precious collection
A harem of blossoms love's fire to consume, love's fire to consume.

Love's bowers should be overflowing
With sweet passionflowers of varied perfume;
So gather a harem of blossoms love's fire consuming
So let it be known.
One love alone.
One love alone.
Is not for a man.

Let love come as some rare treasure
Lightly granted by Allah; (theres a few more lines but I couldn't find them and I can't make them out on the soundtrack myself.sorry.)
