When it's summertime in Heidelberg
There's beauty everywhere
All the trees are dressed in their sunday best
And the brass band plays in the square
Every day is like a holiday
Strolling underneathn the sun
All the fruelines wear flowers in their hair
With a smile to spare for everyone

The linden trees, the fragrant breeze
The promenade where lovers stay
But have a care for someone there
May steal your heart away
Stange things happen on a summers night
When the bells begin to chime
It could happen to someone just like you
In Heidelberg in summertime.
