I remember you down by the river
We made love in the dead of winter

And those crows and fields
Yeah we set them all on fire
But there was nothing left
When we were done, no nothing left, oh

And do you ever think about me
'Cause I think about you all the time?
We burn so bright, we tore all through the night
And sometimes when you dream, do you think about me?

There was danger and wonder in your eyes
But you felt as free as the big blue sky

And sometimes when the cold night comes
You blow into my mind
And you want my bones all like brand new wine
Just like brandy wine, yeah

Do you ever think about me
'Cause I think about you all the time?
We burn so bright, we tore all through the night
Sometimes when you dream, do you think about me?

There's a place where those young lovers are still together
We ran away to a world past forever, oh oh, yeah

Do you ever think about me
'Cause I think about you all the time?
We burn so bright that we tore all through the night
Sometimes when you dream, do you think about me?

'Cause I think about you
You're always on my mind all the time
We burn so bright that we tore all through the night
Sometimes when you dream, do you think about me?

Yeah, yeah, 'cause I think about you

Do you think about, do you think about me?
