1st Verse

I grew up at 303 Pine Street
She grew up at 305
She had my heart by her sixteenth birthday
She got that 'Vette and took me for a ride, yeah

2nd Verse

We slid around Sycamore, hit 90 on Maple
She fired up a Marlboro and threw me the pack
Cut off a semi and gave him the finger
Barely beat a train 'cross the railroad tracks

Chorus

All I ever wanted (all I ever wanted)
Was the girl next door
Yeah, she was the perfect woman
I was never lookin' for
She was a heart-breakin' beer-drinkin' hell-raisin'
Angel in those cut-off jeans she wore

All I ever wanted (all I ever wanted)
Was the girl next door

3rd Verse

Momma said she met a girl last Sunday
She plays Bingo every Saturday night
Daddy told me 'bout his boss's daughter
Swore now boy, she's the marryin' type, but

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge

She was a heart-breakin' beer-drinkin' hell-raisin'
Breathtakin' angel in those cut-off jeans she wore
