I've made a lot of mistakes in my lifetime
Some worse than others
But I never thought i'd make the mistake of leaving you
Now I only have one wish
Please, can I come back home?

I know I've gone away for a while
I didn't want to settle down back then baby
My life's priorities are not in line
But I found that with you my life began
Oh baby

Chorus
Everyone of us has a purpose
And I know I'm supposed to be with you
I wanna come home to ya baby
Don't worry there's nothing to lose

Can I come back home?
Or have I been gone to long
I wanna try again, to stay forever
Can I come back home, or have I been gone too long
I wanna try again
To stay forever

I wanna no if you could ever forgive me
For all the heartache and pain I have caused you girl
I thought I was missing something out there
But what I was missing was in you

Chorus 2 x
