What do you do when you feel weak
What do you say so you can speak
Where do you go to face defeat
What does it take to be complete

I don't know
What's best for you and me
And I'm sure
It's the few that believe
That you see
What you need

All you gotta do is look up
You gotta hold on
No one can stop you
You gotta go on

Why do we always go astray
Seems we can never walk away
We battle our conscience everyday
It's hard to reach out
To find our way

I don't know
What's best for you and me
And I'm sure
It's the few that believe
That you see
What you need

All you gotta do is look up
You gotta hold on
No one can stop you
You gotta go on
