And it seems as though
Your going forward, ignore your problems
But you've left us without
A piece of you
That we need to use
To get to you and to get some attention
But you refuse to give yeah

But then oh no we go
On we go until we find someone
Until then

All of these days days days
They blend into something
Into something in the colourful nineties
All of these days days days
They blend into something
90 something

Now keep going forward
Ignore it all but
Leave us some of you
Because I need to abuse
Myself by the grace of your presence
But just please don't leave me here

But then oh
So it goes oh on we go
Until we find someone

All of these days days days
They blend into something
Into something in the colourful nineties
All of these days days days
They blend into something
90 something

But then oh
So it goes oh on we go
Until we find someone

All of these days days days

They blend into something
Into something in the colourful nineties
All of these days days days
They blend into something
90 some
90 something
