"Picking Up The Pieces"

Visit "Picking Up The Pieces" on MotoLyrics.com

Today we start all over we break the ties that bind
I don't agree but you think we should part
Though I won't try to stop you I'll follow close behind
And pick up tiny pieces of your heart

If you believe you love her and want her more than me
Then I won't try to keep you to apart
But if your love can't hold her look closely and you'll see
Me picking up the pieces of your heart

What if she decided she doesn't want you
Will mem'ries from the past make teardrops start
Then will you be happy I'll follow closy by
To pick up tiny pieces of your heart
[guitar]
What if she decides she doesn't want you...
